FERME DAUSYL

24 Ferme Dausyl opened in Mirabel over 50 years ago; since 2015, it has dedicated its activities to cattle farming. This return to a natural, traditional kind of farming is part of the current efforts to develop environmentally friendly agriculture that guarantees food security, butcher product quality, and product traceability. At Ferme Dausyl, the cattle and calves are fed the farm's harvest (cereal and oilseed), free from hormones and antibiotics. The meat is aged 10 to 20 days, then vacuum-sealed and frozen. It is then sold, in small and large quantities, directly at the farm's store. Open Tuesday to Friday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Saturday and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
